

Clark County, NV

ICC Journeyman HVAC Mechanic

Refresher Class

Effective October 1, 2010 per Clark County Administrative Code which requires that for every building construction job site (in the County), the (HVAC) contractor shall have one or more of the following persons present during work hours in a supervisory capacity for the permitted work.

- A mechanical qualified individual;
- A journeyman HVAC mechanic.

When a County inspector visits your job site they will ask you, or your project supervisor to show "proof" that they have the capacity for this permitted work. One "proof" will be the ICC HVAC card.

If you have questions about this law, contact Michael Giordano, Department of Development Services Building Division Office (702) 455-8388, Cell (702) 249-4110 Email: mgiord@co.clark.nv.us.

If you would like to become a journeyman HVAC mechanic, you have to take a test and become certified by the International Code Council. The test is given at Pearson Vue.

The Southern Nevada Chapter, IAPMO is offering this refresher class to help you with the ICC Journeyman HVAC Residential and Light Frame Construction exam (EXAM ID: 459).

The exam is an open book test made up of 80 questions. You are allowed 4 hours to complete the test.

(Note this law applies only to Clark County work.) It does not apply to Henderson, Las Vegas, and North Las Vegas work).

The exam (and class) is made up of the following: General Code Provisions, HVAC Principles & Technology, Heating and Cooling Equipment and Water Heaters, Exhaust Systems, Duct Systems, Combustion Air, Chimneys and Vents, Fuel Supply Systems. Test Code Book: Uniform Mechanical Code©, 2006 Edition

Instructor: Tom Gugino, City of Las Vegas, cell (702) 303-2294, tgugino@lasvegasnevada.gov.

Why Now and not October 1, 2010?

Two things. It is easy to get into the class. Everyone will wait to the last minute. Second the testing center. The center tests a lot of trades and is busy all the time. Sometimes it is hard to schedule the center for your test. Start today.

RSVP & Pay Bill Laub 365-2024 or bill.laub@swgas.com by Wednesday, August 25, 2010. Make checks payable to SNC - IAPMO. If class does not have ten students, class will be canceled. RSVP & Pay by Wednesday, August 25, 2010

Cost:

$200

includes 2006 IAPMO UMC

Already have book?
