

SNARSCA Party Bingo

2011	SNARSCA Party			2011
B	I	N	G	O
Does refrigeration work	Has seen the latest Twilight movie	Was not born in the United States	Sold a service van this year	Has their OSHA 10 card
Went to Mt Charleston this year	Has been a SNARSCA Contractor of the Year	Teaches a HVAC class at CSN	Wrote to a local politician this year	Has a LinkedIn page
Coached little league in the past year	Helped Mission Cool Off this year	Signed in at the registration table	Works for Southwest Air Conditioning	Owens their own gauges
Has a tattoo	Plans to help SNARSCA more this year	Is enrolled in a dance class	Related or married to a cop	Will eat Pumpkin Cake w/ Caramel-Cream Cheese Frosting
Sent out a form letter at Christmas	Has a scar more than three inches long	Works for Highland Cooling	Is on the SNARSCA Board	Has two or more kids

Print Person's Name in Box. Name Can Only Be Used Once Per Card. Five Squares, Across, Up And Down, Or Diagonal Will Win.

1. Pick up a card and don't forget you need a pen or a pencil
2. Interview each other to find names you can place in the squares that match the subject matter in the square.
3. Have the person sign their name in the square when you find a match.
4. Anyone who gets a horizontal, vertical or diagonal line of five completed squares with no duplicate names wins a bingo. Keep playing until prizes run out (or you get bored).
5. A name can only be used once per card.
6. Five squares, across, up and down, or diagonal will win.
7. The prizes are on the bingo table where you picked up the card. See the bingo master (or mistress)!

